

SHARON T. ALPI AWARD FOR INNOVATIVE ARTS ENTREPRENEURSHIP PEDAGOGY

Established in 2016, the Sharon T. Alpi Award for Innovative Arts Entrepreneurship Pedagogy is given to an educator (or group of educators) to support the continuation of their pedagogy. To be awarded for 3 years, winner(s) of this award receive $500 (award is not given to an institution). Nominations for this award should include educator(s) with bold innovation, and demonstrable examples of engaging their home institution(s) and the arts entrepreneurship field. Award winner(s) will be announced via press release and SAE website.

Award Criteria:

- The pedagogy should break new ground in the discipline of arts entrepreneurship education
- The pedagogy can be shared/disseminated among the arts entrepreneurship educators community
- The approach should have an impact on host institutions beyond the home department of the educator.

Review Process:
